Disqualifications and Declarations

The Trust maintains adherence to the Statutory guidance for governing bodies of maintained schools and local authorities in England with regards to the grounds upon which individuals are disqualified from being a governor.

A person is disqualified from holding or continuing to hold office if that person:

- is the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order or an interim order under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986; a disqualification order under Part 2 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1989; a disqualification undertaking accepted under the Company Directors Disqualification (Northern Ireland) Order 2002; or an order made under section 429(2)(b) of the Insolvency Act 1986 (failure to pay under county court administration order)
- has been removed from the office of charity trustee or trustee for a charity by the Charity Commission or Commissioners or High Court on grounds of any misconduct or mismanagement, or under section 34 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 from being concerned in the management or control of any body
- is included in the list of teachers or workers considered by the Secretary of State as unsuitable to work with children or young people
- is barred from any regulated activity relating to children
- is subject to a direction of the Secretary of State under section 128 of the Education and Skills Act 2008
- is disqualified from working with children or from registering for child-minding or providing day care
- is disqualified from being an independent school proprietor, teacher or employee by the Secretary of State
- has been sentenced to three months or more in prison (without the option of a fine) in the five years before becoming a governor or since becoming a governor
- has received a prison sentence of two years or more in the 20 years before becoming a governor
- has at any time received a prison sentence of five years or more
- has been fined for causing a nuisance or disturbance on school premises during the five years prior to or since appointment or election as a governor
- refuses a request from the school to make an application to the Disclosure and Barring Service for a DBS certificate

DBS Clearance

Please note that under new legislation anyone volunteering to become a school governor may be subject to a check carried out by the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). This check is carried out to ascertain whether you are ineligible to serve on the governing board of a school or academy because either:

- you are disqualified from working with children by Section 35 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000; or
- you contravene one of the conditions imposed in the school governance regulations.
