MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Approved by the Trust Board	12 January 2023
Review Date	January 2026

Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights. It can take various forms, such as slavery, servitude, forced and compulsory labour and human trafficking, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

At the STAR Multi-Academy Trust, we take a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and ensure we act ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships. We are committed to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure modern slavery is not taking place:

- anywhere in our schools or central functions; and
- in any of our supply chains or contracted providers.

Our schools and central functions

We have strong policies in place that minimise the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking in our own schools and functions. These include:

- Recruitment and Appointment Policy
- Safeguarding Policy
- Health and Safety Policy
- Whistleblowing Policy

These policies are adhered to strictly and regularly reviewed by the HR, Governance, Estates and Safeguarding teams. Where we recruit and appoint via external agencies (e.g. for temporary staff) they are required to hold an equivalent policy.

Our supply chains and contracted providers

Our zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery is communicated to all suppliers, contractors and business partners at the outset of our business relationship with them and reinforced as appropriate thereafter. We ensure that this approach is embedded in our supply chains

- Due diligence- all key suppliers are asked to confirm that where relevant they are compliant with the annual reporting requirements contained within Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. Where we procure via an external framework agreement, we will ensure that the framework provider has requested the same.
- Procurement policy- our Procurement Code of Practice places a strong emphasis on ethical procurement and includes processes for ensuring that suppliers comply with our approach
- Risk assessment- we will aim to risk assess all our key contracts during the next year and take action accordingly in any high-risk or medium-risk categories.
- Training and communication- we will communicate information on modern slavery to our staff and ensure that they are aware of how to identify the signs and what action to take

We will take strong enforcement action against any supplier that breaches its commitment here.

Monitoring and Enforcement

Our internal auditor carries out regular testing of internal procedures and controls. Any areas of non-compliance are included in internal audit reports, which are communicated to senior managers and the Finance Audit and Risk Committee, and appropriate action is taken. This is further tested through our external auditors.

If it is believed or suspected a breach of this Modern Slavery Policy Statement has occurred or that it may occur, staff are requested to notify their manager or report it in accordance with our Whistleblowing Policy as soon as possible. If staff are unsure about whether a particular act, the treatment of workers more generally, or their working conditions within any tier of our supply chains constitutes any of the various forms of modern slavery, they are asked to raise it with the HR, Estates or Operations team as appropriate.

Any employee who breaches this Policy Statement will face disciplinary action, which could result in dismissal for misconduct or gross misconduct. We may terminate our relationship with other individuals and organisations working on our behalf if they breach this Policy.

Responsibility

This Statement is reviewed at Trustee level. The HR team has day-to-day responsibility for implementation within our own business and the Operations & Compliance team for implementation within our supply chain.
