It is an offence for an Individual to attempt to engage in regulated activity (working with children). As a result, an individual would be unable to carry out the advertised role if they have certain criminal convictions. As part of the application process, we ask candidates about whether they have any criminal convictions that would prevent them from fulfilling the role. This is to ensure the candidate is suitable to work for the school. The School are also required to carry out a DBS check in order to determine your suitability for the role.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. We will take into account the circumstances and background of any offences and whether they are relevant to the position in question, balancing the rights and interests of the individual, our employees , parents and pupils.

We will treat all applicants fairly but reserve the right to withdraw an offer of employment if you do not disclose relevant information , or if a DBS check reveals information which we reasonably believe would make you unsuitable for the role. The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 ( 2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account.

Do you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) order 1975 ( as amended in 2013)offence/received a caution, reprimand or warning?
