

Headteacher

Riverside School

Salary: L18-L24
£64,143 - £74,295

Full time/Permanent

Required: September 2022

The Trust Board and governors are looking for a dynamic, creative and experienced person to lead our school. The successful applicant will have a proven track record, excellent people skills, high emotional intelligence and a strong desire to make a real difference for our pupils at this exciting stage of the School's development.

We are seeking to appoint an individual who will lead our School by building on its many strengths, whilst also contributing to the development of our Trust. The pupils, staff, parents, governors and our local community are proud of our School where pupils are happy, well-behaved and enjoy learning.

If you are interested in applying for this post, please request a recruitment pack from Katie Hollis via katie.hollis@epm.co.uk or 07731 082859.

Your application and supporting documents should address how your leadership experience to date addresses the requirements set out in the person specification. Candidates will be subject to an enhanced DBS check as part of our commitment to safeguarding children.

Applications should be returned to Katie Hollis by no later than 12 noon on 17th January 2022, and interviews will take place 7th and 8th February 2022.
